Seventh-day Adventist Church

There was a surprise in store for the members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church of Appomattox, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Frazee, from Wildwood, Ga., president of the Wildwood Sanitarium and friends of Pastor Carpenter were present for the morning service, Sabbath, Dec. the 14th.

Mr. Frazee was guest speaker for the 11 o'clock Worship hour. As his position would indicate he is deeply interested in the medical work. The basis of medical work is found in Rom. 12, he said — is service given in love and sympathy quoting verse 15 "Rejoice with those that rejoice and weep with those who weep." However, his main theme was Thoughts On The Assassination, comparing these times with the times before the flood. Gen 6:13 "And God said unto Noah the end of all flesh has come before me; I will destroy them (the people) with the earth." In 2 Tim 3:1 Paul could not have described present day conditions better if he were living today. "This know also that in the last days perilous times shall come. Read this chapter for yourselves please.

"This assassin that took the president's life was inspired by the devil. This man was of a long list of assassins. Cain the first babe born to Adam and Eve was a murderer. He mentioned I John 3:12 "Not as Cain who was of that wicked one slew his brother and wherefore slew he him, because his own works were evil and his brother's righteous." V 15 says "Who soever hateth his brother is a murderer."

"There is an increase in crime and violence each year, because people have hate in their hearts the minister continued. In his closing remarks he said May the spirit of God root up all hatred and bitterness out of our hearts O Friends, I would hate to be an assassin — unless we become all like Jesus, we will become likeley Cabanissa

Give Twice

Christmas will be more than twice as much fun for her if Santa makes every gift two gifts. Adding an extra small gift to each of those big, special gifts doesn't add much to the cost and can add greatly to her Christmas happiness.

A pair of travel scuffs could be tucked into the gift box if Santa is presenting a robe. With her Christmas fur, include the gift of her favorite fragrance.

Fashion gifts such as sweaters and blouses can be enhanced by scarves and pretty pins or other jewelry. For sorties or smart gift handbag.

She'll not only gifts, she'll know really thoughtful.

...Handel was ...born in 1741. London ...tired of his Italian ...of him. More ...had rarely missed ...his debtors' prison ...health was beginning ...

...a commission from ...nt of Ireland and ...of three charitable institutions for Handel to conduct a series of charity concerts, reports World Book Encyclopedia. He began to compose a new piece for the tour.

Handel was not an especially religious man, but something seemed to possess him as he worked. For 23 days he kept to his study, refusing to see any visitors, leaving his food untouched and working through the night. Now he played the harpsichord, now he sang, then back to the writing. His servants thought he was going mad. Often they found him in tears. When he finished the "Hallelujah Chorus," he declared, "I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the great God himself."

On April 13, 1742, 700 people crowded into a Dublin music hall for the premiere of "Messiah". It was a resounding success.

At the first English performance a year later, King George II was so overwhelmed by the "Hallelujah Chorus" that he rose from his seat and stood throughout the section. The audience, of course, followed the example of their king, and so began a custom which survives to our day.

Despite the king's appreciation, however, London was not ready to accept Handel and the concert failed. It was not until Handel began directing annual benefit performances of "Messiah" at the London Foundling Hospital in the 1750's that his adopted countrymen came to recognize it as a masterpiece, and once again gave him their acclaim.
